Suit Filed In Circuit Court To Disqualify Dr. Adams As School Board Member

According to Circuit Court Clerk W. L. Stallard, Jr., a suit was filed in his office on Monday, November 23rd to disqualify Dr. Lundy Adams as a school board member of Letcher County.

The suit was filed by J. D. Buckman, Jr., Attorney General of Kentucky on the "behalf of the Commonwealth of Kentucky vs. Dr. Lundy Adams". The petition reads that Dr. Lundy Adams was appointed to Letcher County Board of Education in December, 1952, due to the resignation of Pearl B. Dixon, and that on August 22nd he accepted and filled a $200 bond to act as Republican Chairman in Letcher County. The suit alleging that it is illegal to hold two offices at the same time. On further examination we find that Dr. E. G. Skaggs of Fleming, who is reported to be taking a leading part in the ousting of Dr. Adams, had certified copies made of the bond and etc., filed in the County Court Clerk's office. Ervin Sanders of Pikeville is the attorney designated to represent the State in the action, according to Clerk Stallard.

The present County School Board consists of Dr. B. F. Wright of Seco; Kerney Day, of Whitesburg; Dr. E. G. Skaggs of Fleming; Dr. Lundy Adams of Blackey; and Ray Collins of Whitesburg, who is Chairman of the Board.

According to Clerk Stallard, this is the first suit of its kind to be served in Letcher County, and the first, to his knowledge, to ever be filed by an Attorney General of the State of Kentucky.

Schools Obeying VA Regulations

Nearly every school in the nation training veterans under the Korean GI Bill has been living up to the letter of the law, Veterans Administration said today.

These few that haven't, VA said will be given every chance to correct deficiencies before action will be taken to stop the GI allowances of veteran-trainees, as VA is required by law to do.

In announcing the steps to be taken in dealing with such schools, VA said the procedure has been designed to protect the interests of the veteran, the school and the Government.

The law contains two major safeguards against abuse, VA explained.

One of them is authority for VA to discontinue the allowances of veterans training in schools that fail to meet, or that violate, any of the provisions of the Korean GI Bill. The other calls for the State to withdraw its approval from courses that fall short of the standards they had to meet in order to be approved originally.

Transylvania College To Enter Into Development Plans

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 1 — (Special)—Transylvania College here will enter on a five-year development program in January, with a financial goal of $1,500,000.

Unanimous decision to embark on the program was made by Transylvania Board of Curators after a six-months' consideration, and a careful study of an impartial survey made by an independent, professional organization.

"Transylvania has given Kentucky her finest cultural tradition and continues to furnish our commonwealth with the finest young men and women, greatly contributing to our political, social and spiritual life. For this heritage and continued contribution, the people of Kentucky are grateful and will support this great college." In these words President Rise summarized the findings of the survey after individual interviews with board members, local citizens and business men, alumni, and members of the Christian churches.

During the year 1954, Dr. Rose said, a volunteer organization will be set up and subscriptions toward the $1,500,000 goal will be solicited from Lexington citizens, from Transylvania alumni and from individuals who are members of the Christian churches in Kentucky, Tennessee, Alabama and Mississippi.

The money, according to Dr. Rose, will be used to complete the auditorium-gymnasium, sums will be allotted to clear off the accumulated indebtedness of the college, and at least $500,000 will be added to the permanent endowment funds in order to provide more income for faculty salaries and other college needs.

Mrs. David Fields and Mrs. Melvin Adams are shopping in Lexington this week.

I promise to advise with the Fiscal Court to the best of my ability and to do those things which will aid the advancement of the people of Letcher County.

Thanks again for your confidence in me, as indicated by your vote, and I trust that you will be able to say at the end of my term of office — A DUTY WELL DONE.

Respectfully yours,

—GORDON R. LEWIS.

Church Attendance

—by Rev. Roy Reeves—
Millstone, Ky.

Dear Reader of This Article:

I hope that I might somehow help you, if you are not already a loyal church-goer, to see the real value of going to Church. In this great country of ours, which has, by the precious Hand of God, been kept from the destruction of war (even though many of our precious boys have made the supreme sacrifice) we ought to be thankful that we have our freedom, and liberty, so that we can go to Church and serve God without fear or favor of man. Yet, many people will not take advantage of this God-given privilege that we have in this land of ours. You know I have been made to wonder, as you see people from Sunday to Sunday refuse to go to Church anywhere at all, just what they would do, if it wasn't for those who are faithful to go to Church. I wonder if they would even live in a community where there was no Church at all. I doubt very much if they would, yet they never attend the church in their own community at any given time. I believe that we have to attend Church to receive light from God. I think I can make it very plain, as I think right now of these men here around Millstone who operate these truck mines, and in these mines they use ponies and mules, to pull their coal.

Now, these mules are worked in the mines all during the week and then they are brought out of the mines over the week-end and left until time to re-enter the mines. Now, if those mules and ponies were left in the mines all the time, without light, they would go blind. Now, the application is apparent: Do not allow yourself to go spiritually blind by not going to the House of God where you may have the proper light.

I wouldn't be surprised, but what some of you that will read this, that haven't been to Church for weeks, or months, and maybe even years. Well if you are quietly you should be ashamed of yourself and go down on your knees and ask God to forgive you of your neglect of duty. You know friends we need to ask ourselves a question that has been asked so many times by so many people, what kind of church would my church be if all the members were just like me?

How many Sundays would there have been Sunday School?

How many Sundays would there have been Christian endeavor?

How many Sundays would there have been preaching services?

What would the financial status of the church be?

How much would I have paid to missions?

How many prayer meetings would there have been?

Would the preacher be encouraged or discouraged?

I would like for every person to examine themselves, see how you measure up in your church attendance. I wonder how your pastor would act—if you should tell him that he may count on seeing you at church without fail every Sunday until Easter, and again if you should tell him that you are trying to encourage others to come to church, now if as much as three fourths of the membership should ask a person every day to attend church, it would be untold how many people that we might get in the habit of going to church. I just imagine that your pastor would act as if something ailed him and it would. Now a person who reverences the Lord's name, observes the Lords Day, frequents the Lords house, and reads the Lords book will never be a disturbing element in any desirable community. On the contrary, it is he and his like who make any community a desirable place in which to live.

Now beloved when you attend church, it's not an ordinary act. It is something tremendous. You take a stand for faith and for spiritual interpretation of life. You testify and witness to the faith that is in you. You also take the side of Angels, and you count on the side of the spiritual. You tell the world you believe in God and eternity and in immortality, and that's tremendous. When you attend church you challenge all that is evil, all that which is contrary to the will of God. When you attend church you say to the whole world that you are against lying, cheating, immorality, drunkenness, war and everything that hurts human beings. Another, I think you are proving to your neighbors who see you go that you are not simply an earth creature, and that you are not going to give up all your time to earthly pleasures, and that you are seeking something higher. Let me say this: the best way to double the preachers power, is to double his congregation. Friend what do you say let's determine in our hearts that on next Sunday we will go to church somewhere and do our best for God and country. The greatest path that any person ever trod, is the path that leads from their front door to the door of their church. What makes it so great? Well it is because this is the path that was made by the Son of Man, for the sons of men, that walking humbly in his Holy presence in the church, they might afterwards walk together as brethren in the world. "Are you using the greatest path?" May God help you to see the value in Church attendance, and then in seeing you will attend the church of your choice.

Thank you and May God Bless You.

KENTUCKY NEWS IN BRIEF

Strengthening of laws dealing with grand and petit jury service in circuit courts was recommended to the 1954 General Assembly by the Kentucky Judicial Conference, composed of the seven appellate and 44 circuit judges of the state.

The proposals, made by the conference after a study lasting more than a year, call for abolition of distinctions between grand and petit jury service, so that a person called for service on one panel might be used on either.

It also proposed to abolish the use of bystanders, and to rewrite the law so that voter registration is required. The present law calls for "property owner" or "Too often, the owner" or "housekeeper." Too often the property owner lives outside the county or state.

The plan also calls for longer grand jury terms, rather than a three-day session each term, that might be extended, in case of emergency to nine days. Rewriting of the exemption provision also was approved to bring it into line with present day demands.

Last of the bridge bonds against the Central Bridge span, connecting Newport and Cincinnati, will be retired Jan. 1, according to Commissioner of Highways W. P. Curlin. The issue amounts to $110,000. The figure represents the balance due on an original issue of $1,000,000—the amount paid for the span in November 1947. It became free August 27.

The go-ahead signal was given by Franklin Circuit Judge William B. Ardery to plans of the State for a new $30,000,000 toll road from Louisville to Elizabethtown, as he dismissed legal attacks against the 1950 toll road law.

An appeal will be taken by the Louisville Automobile Club and the protesting motorists which intervened in the litigation.

"Cross at Corners, traffic lights are not Christmas lights."

Here we are entering the last lap on the track of '53. At this time Letcher County has suffered two more fatal accidents, than at this same time last year. This date last year we had four and to date this year we have had six deaths on Letcher County highways.

This month as a rule brings drinking into the homes, more than any other month of the year. If you're going to drink then that place is at home. Don't drive and drink or drink while you're driving. Let's keep our homes bright for Christmas, with out an added vacancy in our home, because of an accident that could have been prevented.

I wonder how a person would feel to be "one foot from death", it must be a feeling, which that person would never want to feel again. Just don't make the first mistake, it could be your last, or will it.

Come In and Order One...Today!

Of course, any day is a wonderful day for stepping up to Cadillac.

When the magic moment arrives in a man's life when he feels entitled to the "car of cars," he should make the move without hesitation—regardless of year, or season, or any other consideration.

But we do feel, in all honesty, that the motorist who finds himself in that happy circumstance this fall is particularly fortunate.

For Cadillac has never offered so many wonderful things, in such abundant measure, as it does today.

It is supremely beautiful—with grace and dignity and majesty that set it instantly apart from the rest of the world's motor cars.

Its performance is simply breath-taking—even when measured against Cadillac's own extraordinary standards. And the car is luxurious and distinctive and pride-inspiring far beyond its illustrious predecessors.

In addition to all this, the current Cadillac creation is unbelievably practical to own and economical to operate. The lowest-priced Cadillac, for instance, now costs less than twenty-two different models of other makes of motor cars manufactured in America.

And you can ride out a normal, full day's journey on a single tankful of gasoline.

As if this were not sufficient to set it apart, a Cadillac car—according to an authoritative study of used car prices—may be expected to return a greater percentage of its owner's original investment at the time of resale than any other motor car in the land!

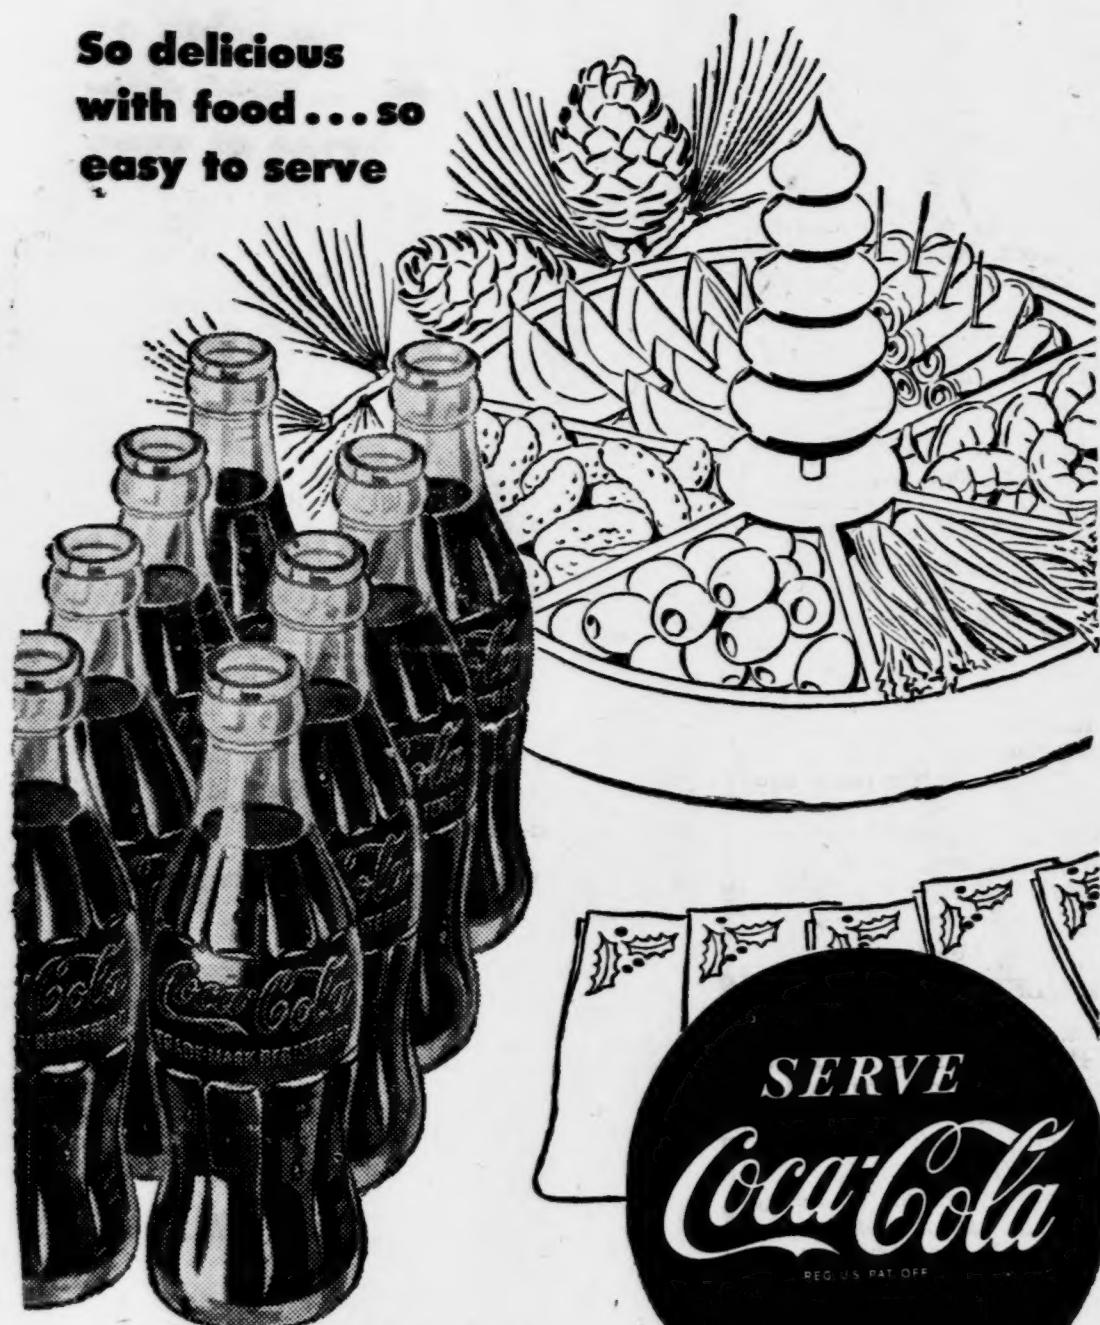

So—if you are considering a Cadillac for yourself and your family—come in and order one today!

It's the right thing to do—and it's the right time to do it.

LESSON VERSES: I Kings 9:3-9; Isaiah 31:1; 42:4; Acts 5:17-29; Romans 13:1-10; 1 Peter 2:13-17. (To be read and studied in your Bibles.)

PRINTED SCRIPTURE: Romans 13:1-10; Acts 5:25-29.

Paul's Letter to the Romans was probably written about the year 58 A. D. As yet Paul had not faced real persecution at the hands of the established government. Trough in the near future the early church would suffer all types of persecutions, Paul was living in a time when the existing government gave the church a real opportunity to testify because it was able to keep law and order and guarantee a measure of peace and prosperity.

Paul tells his Christian friends that they have a duty of obedience to the authority of the state. The civil government has the will of God behind it and on the whole will be used to establish justice in the land. It is an instrument whereby peace is granted to the right and punishment is inflicted upon the evil. Even the power of the sword is granted to the rulers. They may make war, use power, and even kill that justice may be established upon the earth. The sixth verse recognizes the right of a government to tax its people. No government can survive without that right, and though taxes should be levied so that they are just and equal, a Christian should pay taxes as a matter of conscience.

The passage from Acts clears up the immediate question that comes to ones mind. Though the civil government should be obeyed it is not to be worshipped. Christians are bound by a higher law than the civil law. The demands of God for obedience are always higher than the demands of a government. The old law still stands. Men must obey God rather than man.

DIFFERENT NOW

From the age of ten, until I was twenty,
My hours of work were long and plenty;

My feet were bare, my skin was rough,
The food was sufficient, but kindly rough.

I used the plow, the hoe, the mattock,
Got my sleep and rest in an old-time attic;

In the fall and winter, I went to school,
In the spring and summer, I drove a mule,

From the break of day, till the sun was down,
Some task like this, was all I found,

But you know, I didn't mind it then,
And would gladly go through it all again,

If I could only swap these aches and pains,
Not to a mule, but to the tail and mane.

If I could re-live life, I certainly would,
Get more out of it, while the getting is good;

Health, vigor and youth, and a pretty girl,
Beats an ulcerated stomach, and own the world.

SOIL CONSERVATION

(by John Jordan)

Good tile drain systems don't just happen they are planned very carefully. Jim Blair on Rock House Creek near Colson is planning to use tile instead of logs for draining the field next to his house. He knows it will be cheaper in the long run. Bill Adams tile system on Camp Branch is working well. Good drainage is the result of careful work in designing the system and laying the tile. Elisha Ison has finished laying his tile line.

Bryant Watts on Linefork is planning a tile system. C. C. Mullins of Flat Gap has 257 feet of tile staked. About 4,000 feet of tile has been laid this fall. J. B. Eversole of Partridge is constructing an open drainage ditch.

A garden and a sow, A little pasture and a cow Some chickens and a rooster And you'll have more than you uster.

This poem sums up fairly well the type of farming we need to do in Letcher County. A balanced farming program including a live at home plan. A garden, a cow, and sow, raising hay and pasture for the cow, a little corn for the sow, and a cash crop of strawberries if labor is available, or chickens or eggs. I understand we still have to have eggs shipped to Letcher County. Several people are doing very well, try producing a good fresh Letcher County egg. Personally I had rather have them than cold storage eggs. Timber and coal have made this a wealthy county. Our timber is gone but can be replaced. Get some trees planted next spring, if not for yourself for your children. Let them grow up together. Better still let the trees send your boy or girl to school.

WEE WILLIE'S ANDERINGS:

They had a good ball game last night, but after looking at the E-Team of Kingdom Come, I was afraid that the school might be investigated if Joe McCarthy ever saw them dressed up as they were.

The "Mad Englishman" was there. I don't know whether he is the real thing or not. Used to be that some of our boys and girls from around here could go to Detroit and Baltimore and stay about thirty days and come back and talk just like he does. Is he one of our creek boys or is he the real thing?

Down at Hazard the other day and heard the remark that all they played on our local radio station was hill-billy music. I would rather hear Bill Monroe any time, as that fellow Swartz or Bach or Beethoven, wouldn't you? I had a music teacher in College that was teaching me to play the fiddle, of course she called it the Violin, but she said to not let anyone tell you that Bill Monroe and them couldn't make real music. She had been to them big conservatories where they preserve music. I reckon that was the reason that they called it a conservatory. Of course the only program on the radio that is much good is that RC program.

You know it was mighty nice of The Mountain Eagle to want me to write a little piece. I think that we ought to all help our paper by advertising or at least subscribing to it. If you have something to sell you can let people know about it by advertising it in The Mountain Eagle. There is an old saying, "Early to bed and early to rise; Work like the devil and advertise". We have a real up-to-date paper and one that is befitting our town, so let's support it.

Yours truly,
"WEE WILLIE".

an electric clothes dryer

Carol's idea is a good one—as more than 1,000,000 women who use electric clothes dryers already know.

For instance, an electric clothes dryer will dry one full washer-load of clothes ... sheets, towels, dresses, corduroys, even heavy woollens in about an hour. All you do is toss the wash into the dryer and set the dial.

You don't lift and carry heavy baskets.

you don't bend and stretch to hang each piece. And, you never worry about bad weather because your dryer does its job whenever you want it to.

Best of all, you'll find that clothes dried electrically look better, feel better, and last longer than clothes dried outdoors. There's no sun-fading, no wind-damage, no soiling by soot or birds.

Ask your dealer for a free demonstration of the electric clothes dryer. We think it will mean the beginning of a truly "workless washday" for you.

THE PARSON SAYS:

E. Hampton Barnette

Thanksgiving service at the Presbyterian church was a spiritual feast of great delight, and helpfulness. The church was fairly well filled at 8:00 o'clock in the morning. The Whitesburg Glee Club rendered a beautiful number, and led the choir in congregational singing.

Everyone seemed to give his best thanks through such a beautiful response in the service. The Rev. Clel B. Rodgers led us in a most beautiful, and helpful prayer. The Rev. C. A. Lingle, president of the Whitesburg Ministerial Association, presided, and guided the spiritual service to a high tide in his very adept leadership. The Parson gave the message.

The whole service was transcribed and given over WTCW at 12:05 in the afternoon. Many people at home, and in their cars, have told me that they sincerely appreciated and enjoyed the service. This was a high spiritual tide in the religious life of our town people. We believe in and love our churches and should give them our undivided loyalty at all times; for the churches of our community enrich our whole life, and make living worth while and worthy.

I would like to pay my sincere and high regards to the churches back in the county. The Regular Baptists, the Primitives, The Church of God, the Free Will, Nazarene, and all other good people who are working with the Methodists, Baptists and Presbyterians, to make our county spiritually minded in the Grace of our Good Lord and Master. Perhaps the Primitive, and Regular Baptists were earlier than some of the rest of us, and we owe them our gratitude for the Christian service they have given in the past.

The Lady and I were up to see our friends, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Stewart, the other evening. They have been shut in for some time on account of illness. We sat by their open fire until the shadows fell, and enjoyed their most cordial hospitality. One visiting these fine people can always expect the highest friendship, and can always enjoy their humor and good spirit.

When people can enjoy life in spite of illness, and still have a hearty laugh, they are adding something to life that helps us to get along in this world. Mrs. Stewart cordially invited us to stay for supper, but since we had to leave, she gave us a jar of nice jelly she had made.

We called on Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Hays recently. Over in the corner was a baby bed well made up. Her two daughters had just spent several days with them, and of course Grandma and Grandpa had to hunt out the baby beds, and put them up. I know what that means, for occasionally we roll one out at the parsonage.

We made our last call about 9:30 Thanksgiving evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Kilgore's. We did not see any baby beds there, but Tommy Garrett Holbrook, and his brother Randolph, had been there with their parents to enjoy the day. Their grandpa said, "They are good children." Of course they are, all children are good, sometimes, and these are real active boys. Children always know what it takes to manage their grandparents. They can get more ice cream, candy, blow gum, and toys, quicker than any people I know. No one can refuse the outstretched little hands of children, their little fingers, plead so convincingly, and they get it.

Now turning to good eating for a moment. Jim Marlowe told me he directed a duck my way, but it was still on the wing the last he saw of it; Miss Hester Day promised me another guinea, now there is some real eating. They make the best gravy I ever spilled on my tie. Ben Bowen said he told Anna Mae to take me and Dr. Crawford a mess of deer meat. I got mine. If there is anything that is dear to me it is deer meat. Shelby Sturgill, up on Cowan, and down at Naples, Florida, promised me a pheasant which is due next spring.

Mrs. Harry Caudill has supplied me with pumpkins, and if you know what I mean pumpkin pie goes right well with all above said meat. Jim Breeding asked me to go 'possum huntin' with him, so there is another meat. He can have the meat, and I will take the sweet potatoes that goes with it. I can't leave out Sanders Collins, for he has already brought me a mess of home-killed steak.

Now, if I had all these things, and the accessories that go with them, I would have my deep freeze right well stocked, but they have not all come in yet, and that is the rub. But we will wait and see. I want to express my thanks to all these good neighbors and friends, and their good intentions, and in due time I will have something more to write about in the meat line.

Mr. Davis, at the Armature Company, told me his little boy heard my sermon on "Space Men" Thanksgiving day, and said he would be glad to give me some books I wanted so much on the men of outer space. Thank you, Junior, I could use a little expert knowledge on these space men from Ubique.

Lexington, Ky.—Life on the campus might have been different in the early days of the University of Kentucky but it never was dull. The following items, picked at random from publications both official and non-official, give a pretty good picture of college life during the University's first 50 years.

1869—"No female cooks shall be allowed for any of the clubs on the grounds, and wash-women must get husbands or boys to get and return clothes."

1880—"As a rule, the less pocket money allowed by parents or guardians, the better it is for the pupil. When supplies are kept short, the opportunity for contracting vicious habits is correspondingly diminished."

1890—"The use of tobacco for smoking or chewing on any duty, or in the college building, dormitories or dining room, and all profanity and obscenity, are forbidden."

1893—"Some mischievous boys obtained a quantity of green paint which they liberally applied to the cannon and to some of the floors, after which they climaxed their sins by painting green stripes on the President's horse."

1912—"The basketball season of 1912 was one glorious march from start to finish. Not only were we undefeated, but during the entire season not once was an opposing team in the lead."

Christmas Baskets

Every year the attempt of the Whitesburg Ministerial Association to distribute Christmas Baskets has resulted in hard feelings because some persons have not received them. To keep down such feelings this year, a Committee has been appointed to study the need and to make decisions as to who shall receive Christmas baskets. The area over which these baskets will be distributed will extend from Pine Mountain Junction through Whitesburg to Whitco. For consideration, a person must apply for a Christmas Basket by writing a letter or a card to "Christmas Basket," c/o Postmaster, Whitesburg, Ky. Persons who apply for these baskets will be considered according to need and those to whom baskets will be given will have them delivered to their homes. There will be no personal interviews and no persons may come to get their baskets.

Only the members of the Whitesburg Ministerial Association will know the names of the Christmas Basket Committee and this Committee will be able to work completely free of any outside pressure. M.D.

But that's only the beginning of the bigger things you get in this eye-catching Buick SPECIAL for the low figure it carries — a figure that's just a few dollars more than that of the so-called "low-priced three."

Take a quick roll call.

In this Buick you get more room than those few extra dollars can buy elsewhere.

You get more comfort — comfort that a lot more money can't buy anywhere else — the comfort of the Million Dollar Ride, with coil-spring cushioning on all four wheels, torque-tube steadiness, Safety-Ride rims, the firm solidity of a massive X-braced frame.

You get more satisfaction — more of that good and happy feeling that comes from traveling in a car of ample road-weight, of brawny structure, of impressive styling.

And you get more fun, more thrill — from bossing the wallowing, silk-smooth power thrust of the highest-powered, highest-compression Fireball 8 engine ever placed in a Buick SPECIAL.

What it all sums up to is this straight fact: you get far more automobile in this Buick for just a few more dollars. Better look into the matter if it's a real deal you want for your money. We're ready when you are.

IT'S TRADE-IN TIME FOR A BETTER DEAL

Homemakers Corner

—by Roberta Halcomb—
Now that the Thanksgiving Holiday is over we will turn our thoughts to Christmas with all the planning and preparation. Have you ever wondered about some of the Christmas customs of other countries? I'll try to have some of these for you during the month.

Today we'll take a brief look at the Christmas customs in Belgium and Holland.

Christmas in Belgium and Holland is devoted almost entirely to church services and quiet family gatherings. In some villages in Holland the young men gather in the market place before dawn on Christmas morning to sing carols. The leader carries a pole on which gleams a lighted star representing the star that guided the wise men. After the singing, the company goes to some home for supper.

The children's special day is the feast of Saint Nicholas, December 6. (Old Christmas to us). On the eve of his feast Saint Nicholas, wearing his red bishops robe and peaked cap, calls at each home to ask about the conduct of the children. A white sheet has been spread on the floor and his arrival is announced by a shower of sweets on the sheet. As the children scramble for the sweets, Saint Nicholas enters, accompanied by his black servant who has an open bag in one hand and a rod in the other. These are of course for the naughty children. After a word of warning or praise and maybe listening to a child recite a verse, he goes on, that night the children hang their stockings, set out baskets, or their wooden shoes to receive gifts—but they also leave some food for the white horse of Saint Nicholas.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Cranberry nut Bread is as pretty as it is tasty. Although it will be enjoyed at any season, it is especially appreciated during the Holidays.

CRANBERRY NUT BREAD:
1 c cranberries
1/2 c sugar
3 c flour
4 t. baking powder
1 t. salt
1/2 c chopped nuts
Grated rind of 1 orange
1 egg beaten
1 c. milk
2 T. melted butter.

Put cranberries through a food chopper. Mix with salt the sugar. Sift remaining sugar with dry ingredients. Add nuts and orange rind. Combine beaten eggs, milk and melted butter. Add to flour mixture. Fold in sweetened cranberries. Bake in a buttered bread pan in moderate oven (350-375) for about 1 hour.

Suggested menu: Ham loaf, baked potatoes, green beans, grapefruit salad, cranberry nut bread, butter and lemon pudding.

YOUR SOCIAL SECURITY

Question: Can a person receive social security payments if he has earnings from work?

Answer: Beneficiaries age 75 and over may receive benefits regardless of the amount of their earnings. A beneficiary under that age may receive payments even though he does a limited amount of work. If he works for wages in covered employment, he may earn as much as $75 in a month (before tax and other deductions) and still accept his social security check for that month. Benefits are not payable for one or more months if the beneficiary, while under 75, does substantial work as a self-employed person (whether as sole owner or as partner) in a trade or business which is covered by the law, if his net earnings from such self-employment average more than $75 per month for the taxable year. The number of checks not payable will depend on the amount of earnings during the year and on the number of months in which he does substantial work as a self-employed person.

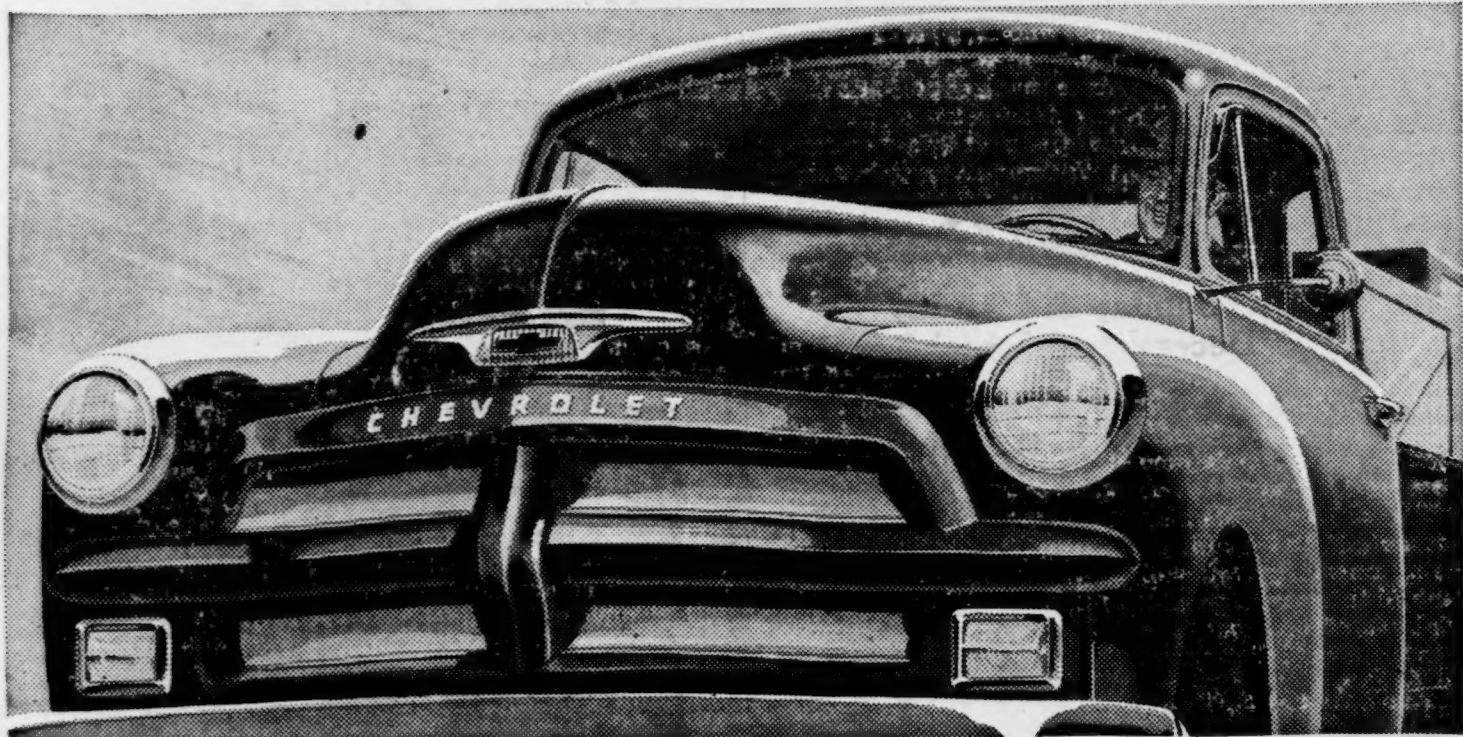

When a beneficiary under age 75 works for wages of more than $75 in a month, he must notify the nearest social security field office. Also, if he engages in self-employment and expects to have net earnings from his self-employment of more than $900 during his taxable year, he should notify the nearest social security office at once.

Address all questions to: Social Security Administration Post Office Building Hazard, Ky.

Jenkins Trampled By Red-Hot Hellier Team 91-78 In Opener

A fatigued clock and a total of 169 points were the earmarks of Jenkins' cage debut last Tuesday evening, in which the Cavaliers fell under a barrage of 31 field goals and 29 free throws by the Hellier Hellicats to lose 91-78. "Grandfather's" clock simply refused to follow the directions of the timer, and the regulation 32 minute contest was lengthened to approximately 48 minutes of actual playing time. A stop-watch was not immediately available.

The defeat marked a continuation of the victory famine in the mining town that was broken only once during the 1952-53 round ball season. The Cavaliers' only win last season was registered against Dorton.

The red hot Hellier squad, who had a percentage from the floor of over 40 per cent, allowed the Cavaliers to take the lead on the second field goal for the only time during the game that they were in front of the Hellicats.

Scores at quarters was 35-23 56-44, 78-62 and the final 91-78.

Childers, the miniature Hellier pacemaker, hit the hoop for 43 points and what might possibly be a record for the Jenkins floor. Childers missed only five out of 26 attempted free throws. Blackburn, giant pivot man, used his hook-shot to good advantage by sinking 19 points to be second on the totem pole.

Bill Dulaney paced the lukewarm Cavaliers, who connected on a low percentage basis of 22 per cent from the floor, as he hit six free throws and ten field goals for a sum of 26 markers. Goins and Barker registered 16 and 13 respectively, next two highest of the rosters.

Seton Hall is rated a 17-point favorite over Scranton by Cagey Charlie in The Sporting News when the two clubs meet, Sunday, December 6. Minnesota is expected to take Tulsa by nine points on the following evening and Notre Dame rates the same margin over Northwestern. Niagara is given a three-point edge over Toledo.

"Cagey Charlie" also predicts that Kentucky is 22 points better than Temple, Wake Forest is expected to take Maryland by five and South Carolina looks seven-points stronger than Georgia Tech.

As a reward for Roy Campanella's fine work with the Brooklyn Dodgers, President Walter O'Malley again assured the Dodger catcher, when he was named the National League's most valuable player, that when he is ready to quit as an active player in the major leagues, he will be given a job as manager in the Dodger farm system, reports the Sporting News. This will give Campanella the distinction of being the first Negro manager of a club in organized ball.

Advance information: Pigskin Pete of The Sporting News picks Michigan to win over UCLA in the Rose Bowl and rates Oklahoma over Maryland in the Orange Bowl on New Years Day.

Whitesburg Takes Opening Game Over Kingdom Come

The Whitesburg Yellowjackets opened their 1953-54 basketball season Tuesday night by down Kingdom Come Wildcats 47-37.

The Yellowjackets led throughout the entire game but were outscored 8-7 in the final quarter.

Most of the Whitesburg boys just recently completed football season which probably attributed to several miscues when the boys attempted to hand off. But with a little more practice the boys should be a different ball club around the middle of January.

No particular boy made an impressive showing for Whitesburg, but Kincer looked good at times when he would drive in for a lay-up.

Starting for Whitesburg was Crase (16), Sexton (15), Kincer (14), Fields (18), and Logan (19). Ogelvie (17) Brown (22) and Bach (21).

Brown and Ogelvie played a greater part of the game. The way Coach Pignam shuffled his line-up, it seems that he hasn't definitely decided on his starting five.

Kincer was high with 12 points for Whitesburg followed by Crase with 11.

McNulty was high for Kingdom Come with 12 points.

Kingdom Come has played several games so far this year and seem to be improving as the season grows older.

Final score: Whitesburg 47, Kingdom Come 37.

'Bear' Facts-

By PAUL BRYANT
UK Football Coach

Lexington, Ky.—Kentucky's predominantly native - born football team has finished another season and I'm sure that virtually every one of the million-plus eye - witnesses who say the boys in action from the stands or on TV sets will agree with me that this was one of the finest.

Personally, I cannot say enough nice things about these great "Comeback Kids." I believe that they are to be complimented highly for accomplishing more with what ability they had than any other football team in history. And I do not refer to just the Tennessee victory, sweet as it was.

This 1953 Kentucky team is one of the finest groups of boys I have ever been privileged to be associated with. They had character, which proves a point I have often mentioned about good homes and good parents being the greatest contributing factors to making a good athlete. They had poise in the face of odds that might easily have overwhelmed less determined men. And they had tremendous spirit and morale. I realize all those things are rather hard to put your finger on and might easily be said of any group, but these young men from every corner of the Commonwealth — from Paducah and Mayfield to Ashland and Lynch and from Covington to Somerset — have the qualities that will make them fine future citizens and a success in whatever they attempt.

We have had our share of glory already, with astonishing come back success, capped by a great victory over a traditional rival, but these boys deserve even more. I think a bid to play in one of the post season bowls is their earned right. Such a privilege should not be denied a team that has proven its calibre by staging an exceptionally strong finish against highly-rated opposition and one that stands as one of the finest and most colorful grid aggregations in the land.

Give freely that others may live and be happy.
